Numerous heritage paint schemes have adorned USAF fighter aircraft over the last few years. These have been done in support of promoting unit heritage and morale. The AMO, Reserve, and Active Duty have painted these three unique, temporary schemes.

The 409th FS scheme celebrates the 75th Anniversary of their squadron and replicates a P-47 scheme from Western France in 1944.

The A-10 Demonstration Team scheme pays homage to POW/MIA personnel from the Vietnam Conflict. This scheme will be on the jet for the entire 2021/2022 window season.

The paint scheme on the 303rd FS is from 2020 and their jet was painted with D-Day invasion stripes in commemoration of the 75th anniversary of the D-Day Invasion.

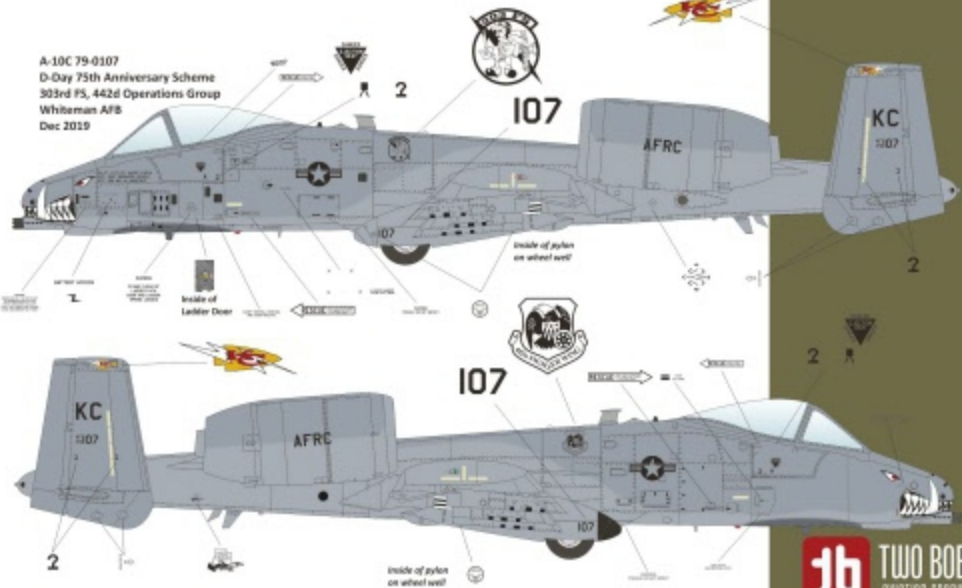

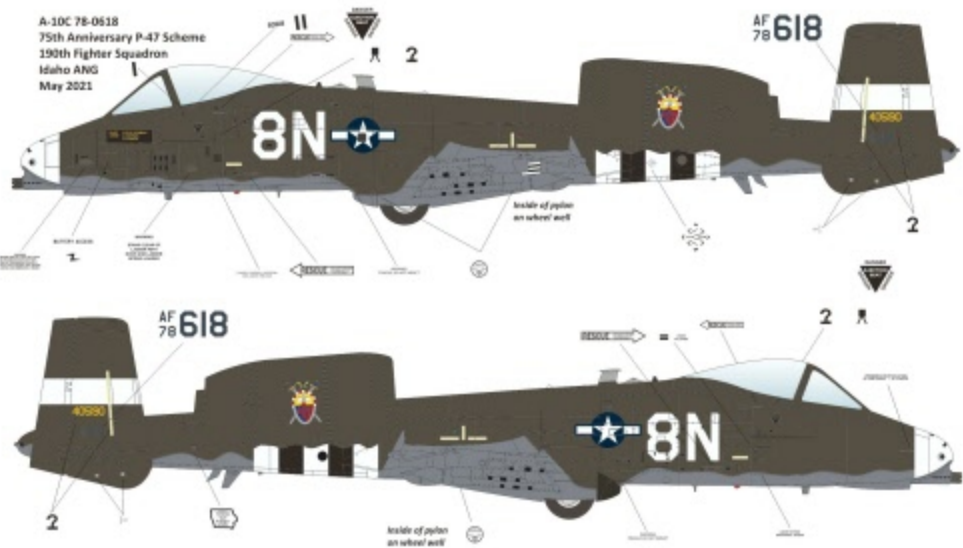

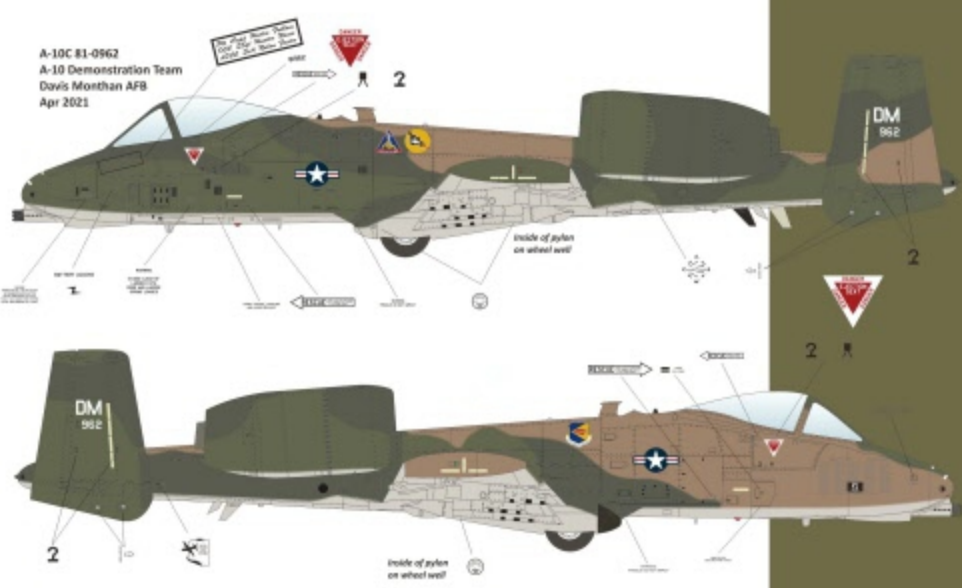

There are enough markings on this sheet to build all three jets. There is also dimensional information provided to mark and paint the invasion stripes on the aircraft.

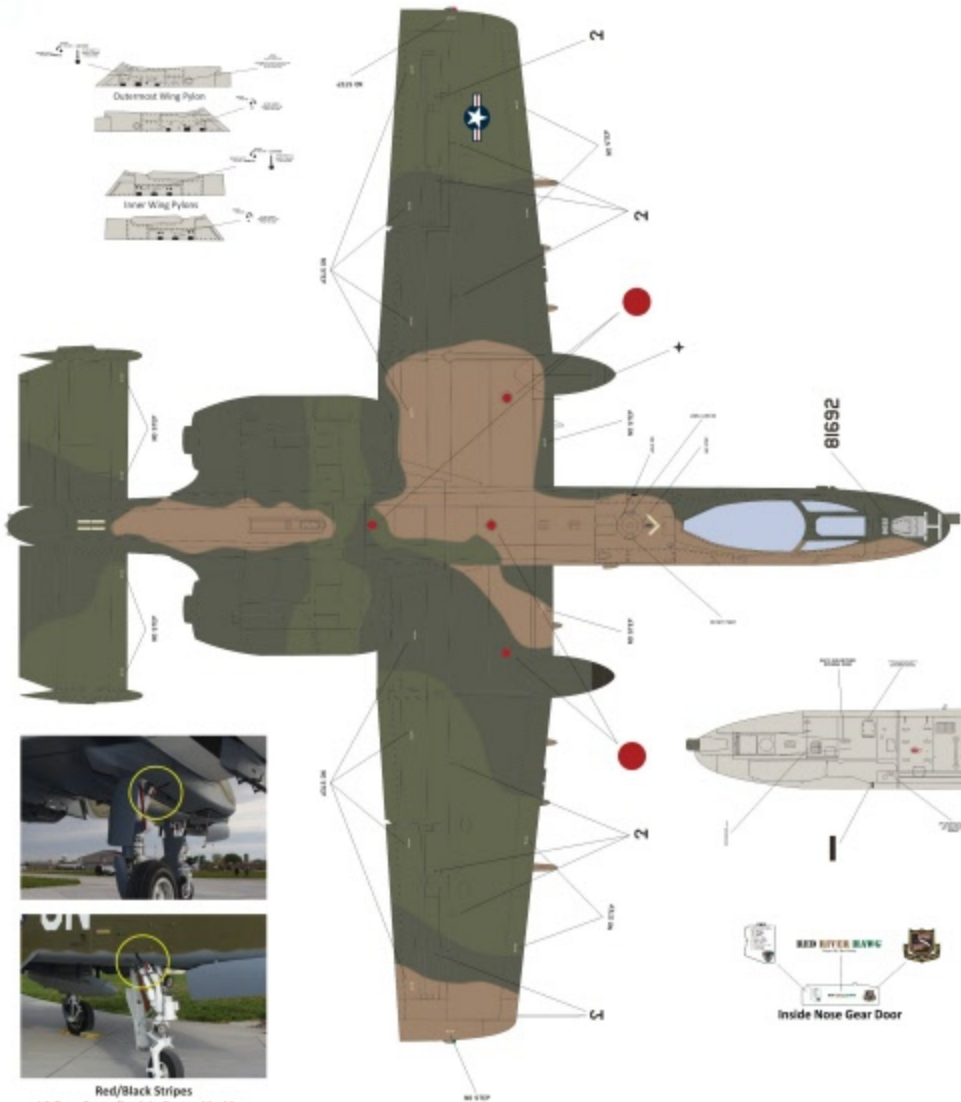

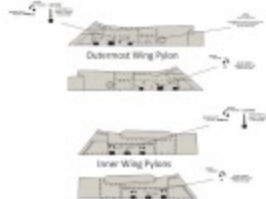

Special Thanks to Jeff Storer, Bill Havel and the folks at the 180th AMW Paint Barn for their help on this sheet.
